Lesson 13 : 楽しくて仲良くなる、外国人との初対面の会話

ネイティブ同士の会話のセリフ

Omar: Hey Bobby how's it going?

Bobby: Hey pretty good Omar, how are you?

Omar: Good, good, it's nice to meet you.

Bobby: Yeah, nice to meet you too.

Omar: So, where are you right now ?

Bobby: I'm in Detroit Michigan.

Omar: Detroit Michigan. Cool, I'm in Gaithersburg Maryland.

Bobby: Oh wow!

Omar: Yeah it's like maybe 20, yeah maybe about 16, 17 miles north of (Washington) DC.

Bobby: Oh wow. Yeah, I can't say I know Maryland that well, but, yeah that's that's pretty close to DC, though.

Omar: Yeah yeah it's a nice area to live in. There's a lot of green here and, in Gaithersburg.

Bobby: Oh yeah is it like a rural area, or more like suburban?

Omar: It's, uh, suburban. So, what are you doing in Detroit?? What kind of work do you do?

Bobby: Actually, I'm a student. Yeah, currently visiting my girlfriend waiting for classes to start up.

Omar: Okay, cool, where do you go to school?

Bobby: I go to school at Ohio State.

Omar: oh, you mean THE Ohio State?

Bobby: Yeah, THE Ohio State University.

Omar: O-H!

Bobby: I-O!

Omar: There you go! Yeah, I used to be a tour guide in DC and I would often get people from Ohio, so I would learn obviously to do that. I would just yell out on the microphone “O-H” and they would respond “I-O”, and of course they would love that and they would sometimes tip me a little bit better, so.

Bobby: Yeah, people learn pretty quick.

Omar: Yeah, I had to make money off of people. Yeah, no it's cool. So, are you from Ohio or where are you from?

Bobby: Yeah I'm from Cincinnati. Um, I lived there my whole life and then I joined the military. I spent five years just traveling around everywhere and then I came back to Columbus to go to school .

Omar: Wow very good very good. So what branch of the military?

Bobby: I was in the Marine Corps.

Omar: Wow cool very good. Well, thank you for your service.

Bobby: No, thank you.

Omar: I have have family that are Marines and friends that are Marines, so like genuinely thank you for your service, because I know it's a huge sacrifice and and your work is not unnoticed.

Bobby: Well thank you man I really appreciate that. So how about you?

Omar: Me? I don't do much actually. so born and raised here in Montgomery County in Maryland and I tried a whole bunch of different stuff. I guess technically I'm I'm a commercial driver by trade but in my spare time I I'm an actor so whenever I get some gigs you know I'll do that. It's pretty much pretty much what I do.

Bobby: Yeah? That's really cool. So so have you been able to land any gigs recently or anything anything significant?

Omar: Yeah, over the last year I've been able to do a few TV commercials where I was either like a lead or like somebody clearly clearly visible and with lines - not necessarily only lead - but yeah it's it's been a lot of fun.

I've done commercials for Bon Secour hospital and, well they have it's a chain of hospitals actually across the East Coast. I've done... Telecom has a phone company called Digicel which is like throughout the throughout Central America and the Caribbean stuff like that.

So I've I've been in one of their advertisements. that was all within the last like ten months or so and it's been a lot of fun ,so I've gotten some good stuff it's a it's been it's been cool. and hoping to, you know, make it bigger than I've gotten so far.

Bobby: Yeah yeah well best of luck to you man that's really cool. It's, to have something like that is, you know further, than most people make it so that's really cool.

Omar: You know, well thank you thank you I appreciate . I hope to definitely continue in persevere to higher heights.

Bobby: Yeah, good luck!

Omar: Bye
